The screenshot shows the UC Santa Cruz website in a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar displays <http://www.ucsc.edu/oncampus/>. The website features a navigation menu on the left with categories like 'ABOUT' and 'FOR'. A central image shows a student reading at a desk with two green desk lamps. To the right of the image is a 'Quick Search' box and a 'QUICKLINKS' section listing various university services. Below the image is a 'HEADLINES' section dated Wednesday, February 25, 2004, with three news items: Chancellor Greenwood's appointment, a $54 million funding announcement, and a faculty collaboration on a classical guitar concert. The footer includes the University of California Santa Cruz logo and the name of the design firm, Cooper, Robertson & Partners.
